

RECRUIT SOCIAL WORKERS FOR RELOCATION PROGRAM

In order to speed up the relocation tempo, James G. Lindley, project director, and John J. C. Moore, counselor, left for Denver yesterday noon, to recruit competent social workers. Social workers are vital in analyzing problems giving advice and encouraging prospective relocatees.

"Killing two birds with one stone," Lindley and Moore will also interview applicants for the various vacancies in the appointed personnel staff.

CURTISS RETURNS TO ROHWER CENTER

Jack Curtiss, acting project attorney during Donald Horn's absence, returned to Rohwer, Ark. Monday evening, according to James G. Lindley, project director.

Meanwhile, Mrs. I. Takahashi, a visitor and one of the two nisei women attorneys in the United States, is assisting with legal matters until Project Attorney Horn's return Monday.

FARM DIVISION PURCHASES 900 SACKS OF POTATO SEEDS

Nine hundred sacks of potato seeds, enough to produce a 9-month supply of seeds for the center, were purchased for early and mid-season planting by the farm division, according to Ernest Tigges, assistant farm superintendent. These seeds are expected to arrive during the latter part of February and March.

The varieties of seeds purchased were 50 sacks of "Early Strain Bliss Triumph" for early planting, 400 sacks of "Irish Cobblers" for mid-season planting, and 450 sacks for storage use.

Tigges expressed the opinion that Amache was very fortunate in procuring her quota of quality seeds at a reasonable price.

CONSUL SCHEDULES PERIODIC CHECK-UP

A Spanish Consul with H. M. Benninghoff of the state department will visit this center for a periodic check-up on or about Dec. 27 and 28, according to a teletype received from Dillon S. Myers, national Military Intelligence Service Language School. Lieut. Claire E. Armstrong and Sgts. James Tanizawa and David Watanabe are the members of this visiting team.

All interested candidates will have an opportunity to talk over Army Language school problems and other pertinent information during their purported two-day stay, announced Walter Knodel, selective service officer, yesterday.

RAA director. Specific time of arrival will be announced later.

The primary purpose of the consul's coming here will be to consult with the Japanese nationals and to report to the Japanese government the conditions existing within the relocation centers, stated W. Ray Johnson, chief of community management.

The consul will confer with the block managers and with members of the appointed personnel.

During the course of the consul's stay he will be escorted on an inspection tour through the hospital, mess halls and to other divisions of the center.

This marks the third visit of a Spanish Consul to Amache.

Benninghoff will be accompanied by Miss Augusta Wagner, former university teacher at Peiping, who returned on the Gripsholm after internment in Weishien, China.

PAUL TERRY PAYS SURPRISE VISIT TO AMACHE SCHOOLS

Students of the Amache schools received an unexpected but happy Christmas gift Thursday morning when their former superintendent of education, Lieut. (jg) Paul J. Terry, paid them a surprise visit.

With only a few hours to spend here, Terry delivered a hurried talk before the high school student body and declared, "I am indeed very happy to see the familiar faces once again. Your new superintendent, Dr. Lloyd Garrison is certainly performing a wonderful job in operating the school system. I hope to see all the students relocated and perhaps may have the privilege of seeing the boys in the navy."

Lieut. Terry graduated Dec. 10, from the Navy Basic Training school at the University of Arizona in Tucson, Ariz. His great ability and leadership stood out as he graduated in the upper 10 per cent of the class. He was selected as one of the 25 men, among the 400 trainees, for special assignment at an undisclosed location.

The junior high school choir paid him a tribute when he dropped in their classroom by singing "Anchors Aweigh."

Lieut. Terry was accompanied by Mrs. Terry and daughter.

Granada PIONEER

Vol. 11, No. 15 Amache, Colo. December 18, 1943